GREAT DAMAGE TO FRUIT.

Six of the great Central Lake district states must have nearly all their fruit from other states this season, and 12 or more states will have but half a crop.

This was made certain yesterday following a careful examination of the frozen buds and twigs. All garden vegetables also have suffered severely and Chicago must draw its supply from distant points as a result of the blizzard and freezing weather of the last three days.

Yesterday the temperature was slowly rising and the snow and sleet turned to rain, which fell incessantly. The same conditions are reported from Minnesota, Wisconsin, parts of Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska and the Dakotas.

Latest estimates of the loss to fruit, vegetable and grain crops, based on yesterday's examinations puts the total above thirty millions.

Less in Kentucky, Tennessee, the Dakotas and other states will not be so heavy, as the storms only devastated portions of them. In the estimates no account is taken of the permanent crippling of young trees and the destruction, partial or complete, of vines and plants.

Novel methods were taken in many districts to save the strawberry and vegetable crops. People stripped their beds of blankets, employed table linen and everything else they could find to cover the gardens and vines. Damp straw, turpentine and anything else that would create heavy smoke were burned in the orchards and gardens to check the frost.

Owing to the unusually warm March and April, all the fruit and vegetable crops were at least a month in advance and in most places there is no chance for a second crop.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air passages. It is made to overcome the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren Street, New York.

THE PRINCE OF MONACO AND THE POPE.

The proposed visit of the Prince of Monaco to Rome has resulted in a new protest from the Vatican, where the prince's set is considered a personal offense to the pope. It was officially announced several days ago that the prince would arrive in Rome on April 24, and would be received by the king the following day. His lecture on oceanography is arranged for April 26.

In an exchange of communications between the Holy See and the prince, the latter explained that he was not coming to Rome as a ruler, but as a scientist to give a lecture. The Vatican answered that it could not permit such a visit without the personal approval of the pope, and that the prince's visit was a personal one.

The prince has no representative in the principality of Monaco, and is only awaiting the attitude of the prince while in Rome, and will then decide upon what form of official protest will take.

In the meantime, further communication has been sent to the prince, recalling that Catholic heads of state are bound by special ties to the pontiff and must uphold his dignity, independence and rights. It is pointed out that the prince might give his lecture elsewhere, but not in Rome, where, "while the full and lasting independence of the head of the church is not guaranteed, the Holy See must protest against the spoliation suffered by the pontiff."
